

Common business expenses can vary depending on the type of business and its size. However, here are some typical categories of business expenses:

1. Operational Expenses:

- Rent or lease payments for office or retail space.
- Utilities (electricity, water, internet, etc.).
- Office supplies and equipment.
- Insurance premiums (e.g., liability, property, health).
- Professional services (legal, accounting, consulting).

2. Employee-related Expenses:

- Salaries and wages.
- Employee benefits (healthcare, retirement plans).
- Payroll taxes.

3. Marketing and Advertising:

- Advertising and promotion costs.
- Marketing materials and campaigns.

4. Cost of Goods Sold (COGS):

- Raw materials or inventory costs.
- Manufacturing or production costs.

5. Travel and Entertainment:

4. Cost of Goods Sold (COGS):

- Raw materials or inventory costs.
- Manufacturing or production costs.

5. Travel and Entertainment:

- Business travel expenses.
- Meals and entertainment related to business activities.

6. Depreciation and Amortization:

- Depreciation of assets like machinery or vehicles.
- Amortization of intangible assets.

7. Taxes:

- Income taxes.
- Property taxes.

8. Interest Expenses:

- Interest on business loans or credit.

9. Maintenance and Repairs:

- Maintenance of equipment or facilities.

10. Miscellaneous Expenses:

- Any other specific costs related to your business.

For a more accurate estimation, you would need to provide specific numbers for each of these categories based on your business's size and operations. If you have more detailed information or specific questions, please feel free to ask.